Connecticut River 15th Annual

Source to Sea Cleanup

Sat., Oct 1; 9 a.m. – noon, for ages 7 and older

Last year 158 volunteers in Eastern Franklin County filled three 30-yard dumpsters in addition to 125 tires, 15 mattresses, 1,500 pounds of scrap metal, 5 couches, and 7 televisions which were collected from the Montague Plains and along rivers and streams in Montague, Gill

Woods-World...

Let's Build Our Own

Sat., Oct 15; 2 –4:30 p.m., for ages 5–9

Join us for a magical afternoon of imaginative play rooted in the natural world. We begin with Alice McLerran's Roxaboxen, a book about the rediscovery of a long remembered backyard world designed and run by children.

and East Deerfield.

Individuals or groups work as teams to make the watershed a cleaner place on sites that run the gamut from fishing trash to illegal dumping. School groups can schedule cleanups in the week preceding the 1st.

Co-sponsors: CT River Watershed Council, Friends of the Great Falls Discovery Center and FirstLight Power.

Participants meet for this free event at the Great Falls Discovery Center in Turners Falls, MA.

Volunteers with Trucks and ATVs also needed for hauling all of the trash from 10am to 3 pm.

In Gill, Montague, East Deerfield & Erving, MA, please call Northfield Mountain at 1-800-859-2960.

Elsewhere in the watershed call: Connecticut River Watershed Council at 1-860-704-0057 or email: cleanup@ctriver.org

Participants then walk to a special spot on the Mountain where natural materials and our own creativity will be used to build "woods-world" -- or whatever we decide to name it! Will we discover wild nibbles to snack on as we build, or maybe find slippery salamanders that live in woods-world? Come find out!

Please bring your favorite trail snack and a small bottle of water. Heavy rain cancels. For ages 5 to 9. This program is free and pre-registration is required.

Halloween Celebration around the Campfire with Roger Tincknell

Sat., Oct 29; 6:30 -7:30 p.m., for all ages

This 25+ year-old celebration of Halloween through songs, stories and dance is led by locally loved singer/songwriter Roger Tincknell.

Roger is a two-time Parents' Choice Award-winning recording artist with numerous CDs for children and adults. Imagine a group of young witches, fairies and aliens in the glow of the firelight spellbound by a slightly spooky story - or waltzing around in small family groups to Roger's beautiful music and you can get some sense of the delight this evening brings.

Wholesome snacks also served. Dress WARMLY, bring blankets to cuddle up with, flashlights and chairs or for seating. In case of poor weather, the program will be held inside the cozy yurt.

This event is FREE. No registration required.
